Alcoholism, Mental Illness, Drug Use Problems Grow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government health officials have pictured the nation as beset with burgeoning problems of alcoholism, mental illness, venereal disease and drug use.

On top of that, the officials said, health-care costs are skyrocketing.

In testimony before a House subcommittee they reported:

—There are up to 6.5 million alcoholics in the land and their numbers grow by 200,000 annually. A growing percentage are married, middle-aged women of the middle and upper classes.

—In a typical community of 150,000 population, where 3,000 children are born annually, one of five will require some form of mental health service and 240 will be patients in mental hospitals in their lifetime.

—Gonorrhea is out of control, with a 12 per cent increase in reported cases in each of the last few years. In some population groups one of three have this venereal disease and don't know it.

—All economic groups and all age groups are involved in taking the mind-expanding drug LSD, but it is falling of fin colleges and high schools because of the publicity about its danger.

The testimony before a House appropriations subcommittee came from Dr. William N. Stewart, U.S. surgeon general; Dr. Stanley F. Yolles, director of the National Institute of Mental Health; and Dr. David J. Sencer, director of the National Communicable Disease Center.

Their statements were made in March and released Wednesday.

Stewart said publicity about the dangers of LSD contributed to a decrease in its use by students but added: "There is no question that we have a problem in all economic groups and in all age groups."

Sencer said while there is adequate treatment for gonorrhea once it is detected, "the problem is we cannot diagnose it in females as well as in males."

"We found in limited studies that in certain population groups 35 per cent of the women are silent carriers of the disease and we know we do not have the tools for control yet," he added.

He said the incidence of syphilis remains steady. "Only about 25 per cent of the syphilis cases being treated by private physicians are being reported," Sencer said.

Dr. Carruth J. Wagner, director of the National Bureau of Health Services, told the subcommittee hospital costs will probably reach $100 a day within five years, compared with their current average of $65 daily. He said doctor's fees have gone up 14 per cent in the past two years.

Michigan Bell Workers Vote; Installers Out

DETROIT (AP) — Members of Michigan's largest unit of the Communications Workers of America decided at a mass meeting today to continue a strike against the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Some 3,000 union members turned out for the meeting and voted to maintain their picket lines in the Detroit metropolitan area until completion of a vote on a contract offer generally accepted elsewhere in the nation.

The second ratification vote, which is being conducted by mail, was ordered by the union's international officials.

Before today's meeting was held, the executive board of CWA Local 4000 in Detroit pledged that any decision made by the membership would be carried out even if it conflicted with the international union.

Local 4000 represents 5,300 persons in the metropolitan Detroit area, which is more than a fourth of CWA members working for Michigan Bell.

The company reported Wednesday night that union workers had returned to their jobs at all points with the exception of Flint, Saginaw, and the metropolitan Detroit area, bounded by Mount Clemens, Ann Arbor, Monroe and Pontiac.

International CWA officials first ordered all Michigan employees to return to work last Monday, despite the weekend's rejection by members in the state of the new three-year contract. The contract, which covered workers throughout the country's Bell system, however, was approved nationally.

A new election was ordered for Michigan, with the ratification period advanced to May 19, after CWA executives said only half of the employees had an opportunity to vote when they rejected the new contract, because of a short balloting period. Employees were told to return to work in the interim period.

Some 23,000 Western Electric installers also are on strike, not only in Michigan but nationally. A three-year contract was ratified last Sunday, but the union decided to take another vote after charges of irregularities in the election were lodged. Schaar's telegram also said that the Western Electric employees should return to work, pending a new vote.

Michigan Bell previously agreed with the international union that if the contract is ratified by May 19, its effective date would be May 1 and all new wage schedules would be retroactive to April 3.

Cancellation Is Threatened To End Jobs Bias

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal officials are threatening to unleash a never-before-used economic weapon—contract cancellation—to combat job discrimination in companies that do $75 billion worth of business a year with the government.

President Johnson empowered federal agencies nearly three years ago to terminate contracts if recipient firms failed to hire, promote and pay employees without regard to race.

Officials admit that some companies have disregarded nondiscrimination pledges, but concede no contracts have been canceled.

In the future, however, "some contracts are going to be lost unless an awful lot of people suddenly reverse their field," claimed Ward McCready, assistant director of the Labor Department's contract compliance office.

McCready said executives of a half-dozen of the nation's largest corporations will be called to informal hearings in New York this month as part of the government effort to increase Negro and Puerto Rican representation in Manhattan's 2.4 million white-collar labor force.

However, he refused to name the firms or provide any details on the hearings.

In Philadelphia, the government's insistence that more minority workers be hired for federal construction projects has stalled nearly $20 million in work. And the contractor on the $30 million U.S. Mint in Philadelphia was told his contract "could be suspended or terminated" unless he acted to integrate his work force. Neither contract has been terminated, however.

Johnson's September 1965 executive order applies to all government contracts over $10,000—or all but $5 billion of $80 billion the government pays each year in contracts for goods and services. The order not only bans discrimination in hiring, but requires "affirmative action" programs to ensure upgrading of minority workers.

Nixon Criticized On Crime Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has issued his formal position on combatting crime—and drawn a rebuke from Republican presidential rival Nelson A. Rockefeller on the issue of civil disorders.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was assessing the scope of his Indiana presidential primary victory and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy campaigned in Nebraska with a verbal blast at Kennedy's agricultural record.

Nixon said leniency and growing rewards of crime—not poverty—are responsible for widespread crime in the cities which threatens to spread to rich suburbs.

"The success of criminals in this country," the former vice president said in New York Wednesday, "plays a far greater role in the rising crime rate than any consideration of poverty."

New York Gov. Rockefeller took issue in a Minneapolis, Minn., speech with Nixon's view, expressed earlier, that order must be maintained while an answer to the civil disorders problem is sought.

"I cannot agree with those who say that we must have order or we shall have no progress," Rockefeller said. "I say that without progress, and without justice, there will be no order."

Cong Hit Hard In Saigon Push From 3 Sides

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong hit hard at Saigon from three sides today on the eve of the Paris peace talks, pushing closer to the center of the South Vietnamese capital than at any time since the start of the five-day-old Communist offensive.

The U.S. Command announced 2,540 enemy soldiers have been killed since the assault began last Sunday.

Thousands of anguished, frightened civilians streamed into the center of the city, swelling the ranks of the homeless to more than 50,000.

The toll of civilian dead and wounded mounted to more than 2,000.

It was Saigon's worst day since Sunday, and new fears swept the city. Jets roared across the heart of the city, and moments later the thud of 500-pound bombs was heard. They shook the downtown section.

Blocks of Saigon's southern and eastern sections were destroyed under the pounding of U.S. and South Vietnamese dive-bombers and helicopter gunships. Some houses were set afire by the Viet Cong to cover their movements.

The U.S. Command called in hundreds more infantrymen, tanks and helicopter gunships to meet the Viet Cong drive, which late Wednesday had appeared to be tapering off. There were reports, however, that the Viet Cong had brought up reinforcements through the night, covering their infiltration with diversionary shelling at other points.

Despite the U.S. claim that American and South Vietnamese soldiers were killing 10 of the enemy for every American or South Vietnamese soldier slain in the Saigon fighting, the Viet Cong had plenty of punch left.

Hard Bargaining With Reds Seen For Paris Talks

PARIS (AP) — U.S. officials today predicted long, hard bargaining with the North Vietnamese as American negotiators headed for the French capital with a mandate from President Johnson to sound out Hanoi's representatives on peace prospects.

An atmosphere of hope in Washington was tempered by the recollection that it took two years of tough bargaining with the Communists to end the Korean war.

No one cared to predict how long the Paris talks would last. But the big question in American minds was whether the Communists really want a peace settlement or planned to use the talks only to press for a bombing halt and other advantages for their military campaign in South Vietnam.

W. Averell Harriman, President Johnson's envoy, and his chief aides were scheduled to arrive tonight from Washington. Xuan Thuy, the chief North Vietnamese negotiator, came by way of Peking and Moscow.

The first meeting between Harriman and Thuy was scheduled Friday in the former Majestic Hotel near the Arc de Triomphe.

U.S. officials expressed interest in French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's speculation that the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators might move on to broad talks on ending the war as well as the scheduled preliminary discussions on the question of halting U.S. bombing of the North.

American officials said they did not know whether Hanoi had asked the French government to convey this view of the talks to the West.

U.S. authorities have made plain that Harriman would seek a military restraint by North Vietnam in return for what Hanoi lists as its priority topic: "The unconditional cessation of the U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

The North Vietnamese are reported to feel that the United States will eventually agree to a phased withdrawal under the cover of a political compromise in the South.

Dow Pledges To Supply Napalm, Despite Protest

MIDLAND (AP) — Hundreds of demonstrators failed to change the minds of Dow Chemical Co.'s stockholders and officers Wednesday about making napalm.

While pickets—estimated between 400 and 1,000—demonstrated outside the company's annual meeting at a Midland school, stockholders overwhelmingly endorsed the firm's policy of manufacturing the jellied gasoline bombs used to support U.S. combat troops in Vietnam.

Midland's entire 32-man police force was on duty for the demonstration and a State Police observer was on hand, but except for two brief verbal confrontations between demonstrators and about 50 counterdemonstrators, there were no incidents.

Before the meeting began, Dow issued a statement reaffirming the company's policy of manufacturing napalm, which it said accounts for less than one per cent of the firm's total business.

"Regardless of the economic unimportance of napalm to Dow, we intend to continue making it because we feel that so long as the United States is sending men to war, it is unthinkable that we would not supply the material they need," the company said.

U.P. Conference:

Answers Sought To Problems Of Troubled Youth

The schools, police, and juvenile courts of the Upper Peninsula moved closer in a conference at Marquette on Monday in an effort to solve some of the problems that confront them in dealing with juvenile delinquency.

The meeting was sponsored by the Children's Charter of the Courts of Michigan, Inc., and was attended by school, police court representatives from U.P. counties.

Attending from Delta County were juvenile judge Marie Peters, Juvenile Officer Lyle LeCaptain; Principal Roy Hivala and Ronald Pertile, teacher, Escanaba Junior High School; Capt. Richard Lundlin, Escanaba Police Department and Officer Lowell Girard of the Gladstone Police Department.

Schools Leaders

Participating in the discussions were Prosecuting Attorney Edward Quinell, Marquette; Dickinson County Juvenile Judge V. Robert Payant; and Robert Peckham, administrative assistant, Allegan Public Schools.

Donald T. Anderson, education director, Children's Charter of the Courts of Michigan, Inc., discussed recent court decisions and the rights of children. He described the responsibilities of the schools in the education of children—including those with emotional and behavioral problems—and said that "classes as usual" are "contributors to delinquency."

"This represents a real challenge to the schools," he said. "They should be the leaders in meeting the problems of education as it relates to the delinquent—whether this is in the regular classroom, or a special program in the schools—or by school administered programs in detention facilities, training schools or special educational units."

More Feedback

He added that he hoped the conference could establish a climate for friendly, but frank, discussion and planning. "Later, county level, conferences should attack the problem in terms of specifics."

Robert Peckham, Allegan Public Schools, was equally frank in his evaluation of the problem.

"We will talk only about some of the problems of some of the schools in their relations with the courts and law enforcement people."

Peckham said the courts have yet to define clearly for the schools what information the schools compile on a student is private or what may be revealed; and the schools have been asked on one hand to stick to the facts and on the other to draw some conclusions on whether a child is a potential delinquent.

"Another problem of great concern is the lack of feedback from the courts to the schools on children who are taken before the courts."

"If the schools have the knowledge about the court's determination in the child's case it could many times eliminate hours of work on the school's part. Many times a condition of probation is regular school attendance. If the schools knew that such was the case, then when the child's attendance became spotty and irregular it could be called to the court's attention immediately," Peckham pointed out.

His Suggestions

There is the feeling among school people in some communities that "the less you bother the probate courts the better the courts like it."

Peckham discussed the problems of school administrators and the laws that are so ill-defined school people are not certain whether it is necessary for a child to be accompanied by his attorney when he is disciplined or suspended for bad behavior. His recommendations:

"Let each other know what the problems are.

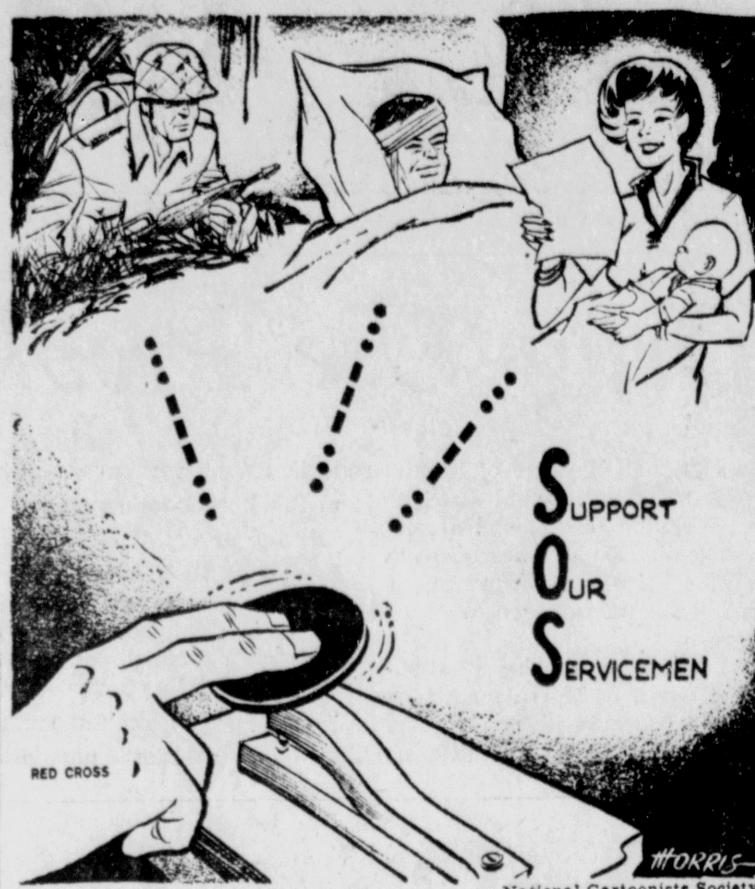

"Discuss and defend or revise the philosophy concerning the handling of errant children.

"Open up our lines of communication—make it easy for the other fellow to reach us. Cut the formality.

"Establish procedures for dealing with youngsters so that each agency knows what to expect."

Peckham also suggested periodic meetings to compare notes; and develop an understanding and appreciation of the problems of the other agencies.

Red Cross Plans SOS Fund Drive

The Delta County Chapter Board, American Red Cross, voted to conduct a special balance of needs campaign for funds, at a special chapter meeting held Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce building.

Chapter Chairman Cecil Chase presided at the special meeting called to review the serious financial condition of the Chapter.

Bruce Christy, Red Cross Field Representative from Green Bay, Wisconsin, reviewed the current program needs of Red Cross including the increased commitments to the Armed Services and Vietnam needs in particular, along with the greatly increased funds required for national disasters.

Drop Blood Program?

A tentative budget was discussed including the costs of the Red Cross Blood program. Since the Blood Program is a "permissive" program, in that the Delta County Chapter is not required to operate it, it may

Neighbor Claims Kalamazoo Lion Menace To Young

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Brandy, a 9-month-old lion cub that sleeps in the basement of a house at Kalamazoo, occasionally is pestered by people but his owner says he never tried to hurt anyone.

Now the cub's neighbor, Western Michigan University sociology Prof. Milton Brawer, has complained to city authorities that the animal is a menace to children and wants to know the law on lion control.

Brandy's owner, commercial artist John Marquis, says the lion stays in the basement when he is not home and only goes out on a leash.

The lion, which has no claws or fangs yet—eats five pounds of horsemeat a day, now weighs 140 pounds but will weigh 400 pounds at maturity.

Marquis, a bachelor, bought the pet from a man in Chicago.

Bar Supports Petition Drive

The Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan is the latest group to announce support of the petition drive being conducted by the League of Women Voters of Michigan.

League members throughout the state are gathering signatures of registered voters to place a constitutional amendment on the Nov. 5 ballot to amend the method of judicial selection and tenure for state and local judges.

Other supporting organizations are Church Women United in Michigan, Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, and Michigan Jaycees.

The amendment would create an independent, qualified, nonpartisan judiciary, without political party commitments; Selection of judges based only upon meritorious qualifications; Nomination and appointment of qualified candidates after full and adequate investigation; Choice by voters based solely on the individual judge's performance in office; A responsible agency to investigate citizens' complaints against judges; Judges holding office only during good behavior.

The Real West:

Tim McCoy Show Coming Saturday

That hero of the real West—and later the "reel" West of the Hollywood movies—will come to Escanaba with his show on Saturday night, sponsored by the AMVETS.

He is Tim McCoy, listed among the top 10 all time Western stars as "the most authentic" of that group of hard-riding, clean-living, quick-shooters that included Hoot Gibson, Ken Maynard, Buck Jones and Tom Mix.

McCoy will appear on the William Oliver Memorial Auditorium stage at the Junior High School in Escanaba at 8 p.m. Saturday, sponsored by the AMVETS as a benefit performance for their Bay de Noc Community College scholarship fund.

Tickets are available now at Nagelkirk's, Ernie's Party Store, Goodman's Drug Store, Nelson's Cash Market, Delta Music Center and Marrier Music, and at the door on Saturday night.

The experts contend that Tim McCoy was the fastest man with a six shooter ever recorded on film.

When Mike Todd was lining up his list of stars for "Around the World in 80 Days," he selected Tim McCoy to play the cavalry colonel because as Mike said "He looks like a real cavalry colonel officer should."

This isn't surprising because in real life Co. McCoy is a retired cavalry officer.

His knowledge of the West and the Indians was proven as

Police Training Is Sad Aspect Declares Kelley

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The poor training of policemen is one of the sad aspects of the fight against crime, a meeting of state attorneys general was told Wednesday.

The speaker was Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley of Michigan, president of the National Association of Attorneys General, appearing before the organization's Eastern Regional Conference.

"We are being asked to wage war on crime and yet, we have the most ill-equipped soldiers in the history of warfare," Kelley said, cautioning against too much dependency upon Washington to solve the local problems of law enforcement and civil disorder. The Michigan official contended the state attorneys general "have risen to the occasion when called upon."

City Manager, Wife Injured In Auto Crash

Escanaba City Manager George M. Harvey, 54, and his wife, Alice, 55, were hospitalized Wednesday after being injured in a two-car traffic accident on U. S. 2 east of Rapid River about 5:25 p. m.

State Police of the Gladstone Post said Harvey's car collided with an automobile driven by Arvid J. Major, 60, of 1002 N. 15th St., Gladstone.

Officers said Harvey, 1203 5th Ave. S., Escanaba, was east-bound on U. S. 2 and was attempting to make a left turn into a private driveway about four tenths of a mile east of County Rd. 509 in Masonville Township when the accident happened.

Hospital officials said this morning that Harvey is in "good" condition and wife in "fairly good" conditions.

Harvey was reported under treatment for a fractured hand, bruises and possible rib and back injuries. His wife also reportedly suffered back injuries.

Major was not seriously injured in the accident.

Officers said Harvey was given a traffic summons for making an improper turn.

State Police said Russell L. Cmejla, Rte. 2, Bark River, also was injured in a traffic accident Wednesday. He was treated at St. Francis Hospital and released. Details on the accident were not immediately available.

time between noon and 6 p.m. EDT."

Meantime, Sundstrom announced that air was circulating through the entire mine, indicating that the water level has dropped below ceiling level in all of the mine tunnels, even at the lowest points.

The mine passageway is only 36 inches high for most of its two-mile reach into the mountain. Two men are a half-mile farther in than the 13. Another half mile deeper are 10 others, presumed dead.

Ambulances arriving late Wednesday night set off the first wave of anticipation. But H. E. Sundstrom, overnight supervisor of rescue operations said of an imminent rescue, "It definitely is not so. Whoever called for those ambulances didn't do so on my orders."

The rescuers encountered difficulty in trying to put an 800-gallon-a-minute pump into operation where the water was deepest. They hit bedrock with their drills 200 feet from the shaft. Ten other pumps were continuing to take out water at the rate of 3,200 gallons a minute.

Robert L. Lee To Be Ordained

Robert Lloyd Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee, Rte. 1, Rapid River, formerly of Wells, will be awarded the Bachelor of Theology degree during graduation proceedings at the Free Lutheran Theological Seminary, Minneapolis, on Friday, May 17.

During his course of seminary studies, he has been active in the youth department of his denomination, and presently serves as Youth Board secretary and as national president of the Luther League Federation.

Mr. Lee accepted a call to be the pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Tioga, North Dakota, and will be ordained into the ministry on Sunday, June 16, at Cloquet, Minn. He will be installed in his parish on June 30 by the Rev. John DeBoer, former pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Escanaba.

Mr. Lee attended the Wells Township Schools, and is a 1961 graduate of Escanaba Area High School. He received his pre-theological training at the University of North Dakota and Augsburg College, the latter of which graduated him with the Bachelor of Arts degree. He was married in June, 1967, to the former Gloria James, of Minneapolis.

F111A Lost In Desert Crash

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A seventh F111A fighter-bomber, the $5-million swing-wing jet developed from the controversial TFX program, has crashed.

Both pilots parachuted safely as the camouflaged plane carrying secret combat gear ploughed into the desert Wednesday and was demolished.

The Air Force described the flight as a routine training mission and released no details of the crash 60 miles north of Las Vegas.

The plane was similar to three lost recently in Vietnam.

It was the eighth plane lost of two types developed from the TFX, the tactical fighter experimental program pushed by Robert S. McNamara when he was secretary of the defense. McNamara said he aimed at incorporating a common basic design for both the Air Force and Navy.

M16 Rifle Cost To Be Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special House Armed Services subcommittee that investigated the M16 rifle a year ago will reconvene to examine what its chairman calls "unrealistically high" prices in two new procurement contracts.

Rep. Richard H. Ichord, D-Mo., said Wednesday his subcommittee also plans to ask the Army why it rejected the bid of an arms manufacturer whose price was $20 million below that of one successful bidder, General Motors.

"I believe the public is entitled to a full explanation of the matter and we intend to examine the whole matter in detail," Ichord said.

The subcommittee, which charged in its report last October that the M16 program had been "grossly mismanaged," will reopen hearings next Tuesday.

Dr. Lang Honored

EAST LANSING (AP) — Dr. Anton Lang, director of the Michigan State University Atomic Energy Commission Plant Research Laboratory, has been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, it was announced Wednesday.

ONE OF THE LARGEST rainbow trout taken out of the Sturgeon River in recent years was landed Monday by Ken Carlson of Hyde. Carlson said the 30-inch long trout weighed eight pounds dressed, easily qualifying for the Master Angler's award presented by Panax Corp. newspapers in cooperation with the Michigan Conservation Dept. Carlson said he was using spinning tackle and casting with a "Little Cleo" spoon when the big fish struck. He said he landed the fish after a 20-minute battle. The trout had lamprey marks on both sides of its tail. (Daily Press Photo)

Tests Ordered For Pearson By Bessemer Judge

BESSEMER (AP) — A judge has ordered a psychiatric examination for a 56-year-old timber cutter charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of one of seven persons killed in a shooting spree last March 16. Gogebic County Circuit Judge Donald Munro ordered the examination for Eric Pearson, who is charged with murdering Rudolph Maurin, 56, one of the victims.

Dr. J.P. Franck of Wakefield was named as the doctor to examine Pearson, with no deadline set for his report.

Meanwhile, Pearson was returned to jail with no bond permitted. The court said it would not accept any plea at this time.

The shooting spree occurred in the Lake Road Tavern at Lake and Airport Roads in Ironwood Township.

Choir To Feature Original Numbers

The composing talents of a member of the Escanaba Area public schools' music staff may have been inherited.

In the past five years, several original works by David Laakso have been premiered by the Area choral music department.

Tonight, the 125-voice High School Choir will sing two original works by Laakso's father, Alfred Laakso. The annual Spring Concert of the Vocal Music Dept. begins at 7:30 p.m. in William W. Oliver auditorium in the Junior High school.

"Kauhava-Kotiseutu" is a nostalgic poem which describes the countryside with its meadows, trees and lakes in Kauhava, which was Alfred Laakso's birthplace. "Kesa", the second short selection, which means summer, depicts the season of the year as it breaks from winter.

Both numbers will be sung in Finnish and will be heard in performance for the first time.

W. J. Bisdee FRIENDLY MICROBES

Nowhere in nature's immense complexity are the mysteries of life and death, and the struggle for survival more pronounced than among the microbes. Fortunately, most microbes are not harmful to man, but almost all are hostile to one another. Thus, for sometime, bacterial researchers have followed Pasteur's advice: "Use bacteria to combat disease caused by other bacteria." Man has learned—and is learning every day—to borrow from microbes the substances which they secrete to kill other microbes; the result—antibiotics.

Autopsy On Millage

Escanaba Area School District electors on Monday voted down for the third time a proposal for millage to pay school operating costs.

The margin of defeat was the smallest in any of the elections, indicating to the hopeful that the issue is on its way to reluctant acceptance by the voters. It failed by 162 votes with 4,276 ballots cast.

The Board of Education has set the next election for June 10. The same proposal: 5.4 mills for 2 years.

As the fourth campaign for the millage starts let us cite some things for the consideration of the voters. First our system of voting money for the support of the public schools in Michigan is very badly structured. It is as though we were all in a conspiracy to make the schools beg and then to deny them what's needed to operate.

In no other branch of local government is this true. There can be gross inefficiency in office and the funds flow. The public isn't consulted, it's just sent a tax bill, and it pays it and turns about and votes "No" when our educational system asks it for enough money to operate the public schools.

Nowhere else is the electorate so consulted for approval of an on-going, routine function of local government. We have set up our big veto power so the voters can use it on the schools alone.

This setup is especially dangerous and hurtful in an area like the Upper Peninsula of Michigan where the adult population has not averaged finished high school and is not up to the national average of income. Two generations ago education was regarded as a "frill," and with some good reason. Except for the serious students in professional studies, Joe College was out for fun as well as culture.

The situation is changed drastically today. The worker in the blue shirt today needs a skill that's based on learning that comes out of schooling. Industry can and does supply the technical finish that's needed for its specific jobs, but it cannot supply the basic knowledge upon which technical knowledge can be made useful. With this schooling the worker in the blue shirt has large earning ability, usually much greater than the white collar clerical worker.

There are some obvious things and some subtle things apparent in an analysis of the election. It won where people knew most about the need for schooling for our children. Where the millage could have been most supremely helpful, because it would have brought children opportunities that their parents cannot give them — it lost.

Somehow the doubters must be convinced and it is heartening that they decrease. We have always been proud of the record of the Upper Peninsula — all of it — in support of education. Short on it itself, it has always gone far out for it as an aid to the children which it is rearing for export because there are not enough jobs here to keep them at home. This is an extra burden on U. P. taxpayers, because they are schooling workers for Milwaukee, Chicago and Detroit and seeing the best job openings in the U. P. closed to them because they lack the skills to fill them.

Where the millage deserved its strongest support — because it is the hope of so many young people for equality of work opportunity — it failed worst. This is the problem of the campaign.

THANKS

The Alger-Schoolcraft Board of Health and staff of the Health Dept. say a "Thank you very much!" to the many groups and individuals who did so much to make the recent Adult Health Testing Program such a success. Eight hundred people were tested and the results will be sent to their personal physicians. The Michigan Department of Public Health provided the two large mobile units, the technical personnel and equipment.

We express our gratitude to all the citizens of Schoolcraft County who volunteered their services as receptionists, registrars, etc. And we are grateful to the administration and staff of the Schoolcraft Hospital and Medical Care Facility for their cooperation. Especially are we thankful to the physicians of Schoolcraft County for their fine support both during the program and now in the follow-up period.

The Telephone Co. generously donated an extra line for the entire program starting April 4 and this made it possible to handle the hundreds of extra calls for appointments, etc. And the Edison Sault Electric Co. arranged the power hook-up for the X-ray machine.

We are keeping the names of all who asked for appointments but could not be accommodated in the hope that we can arrange for the testing units to return during the summer.

PEACE

The prospects for peace brightened when President Johnson announced our acceptance of Paris, France as a site for preliminary talks.

Prior to the announcement, the President was under heavy criticism for refusing to accept Pnom Penh, Cambodia or Warsaw, Poland, the two sites for negotiation suggested by Hanoi. On April 27, I discussed these sites in an address to the Michigan Veterans of Foreign Wars in Hubble.

I pointed out that we do not have an embassy in Pnom Penh, and therefore do not have co-

Catholic Church To Fight Racism

LANSING—The Catholic bishops of the United States have approved a program to put the full weight of the American church behind the cause of the Negro and all poor people.

The bishops issued a statement on racism at their spring meeting in St. Louis, Mo., and then adopted a "broad program" of social action in cities across the country.

In their statement on the "National Race Crisis: 1968," the bishops sounded their strongest call for Catholic participation in programs on national, diocesan and parish levels aimed at eradicating racism and discrimination.

The statement calls special attention to the areas of education, job opportunity, housing and welfare assistance.

Plans for the 11-point program, which aims at alleviating the needs of Negroes and other disadvantaged persons, call for the most sweeping projects ever envisioned by leaders of the Catholic church in this country.

Dearden Leads

The report adopted by the bishops was prepared at the request of Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit, who is president of the U.S. Catholic Conference and chairman of the board of the Michigan Catholic Conference.

The report indicates that the church involvement—and the changes within the Church—will be great. But it also indicates that the church in America does not intend to rush off in all directions.

Eight principles and goals which will guide the action by the Catholic Church in the U.S. are set forth:

—"The simple recognition that racism is at the heart of our racial crisis is not enough. We must also recognize how racism works: through people and through institutions. The church's efforts must be two-pronged: directed at both 'personal racism'—combating it in the minds and hearts of its largely white membership—and at institutional racism, cleansing its institutions and organizational life of those characteristics which tend to reinforce personal racist attitudes and which make it difficult for a Christian of good will to act in a truly Christian manner."

Black Community

"The black community is often poorly organized and fragmented, with the result that it is unable to present a strong, united voice on matters affecting it, and unable to wield effective political power. Economically, ghetto residents are earners and spenders, not entrepreneurs. It is white society which supplies and creates black men's needs, and it is white society which reaps the economic benefits of providing these services. Political, organizational and economic independence were important elements in the earlier rapid integration of immigrant ethnic groups into the American society. The Church must now support the black community in its efforts to achieve organizational, political and economic power so necessary to break down existing patterns of dependency and frustration."

—"Black people have a right to determine their own lives, and have a 'right to exert meaningful control over public decisions which affect them.' Whites must help promote these rights, and 'must be prepared to help Negroes, without dominating them, and to offer assistance when requested, without decreeing its form and content."

Black And White

—"Whites and blacks must establish meaningful dialogue on matters of substantial interest to both. The church, with its deep involvement in urban life, 'is in a unique position to develop such bonds.'"

—"The church has often ignored a fact of its own life—that in this country it is largely a white institution—and has ignored its mission to preach the Gospel of social justice to whites, while it has devoted some of its best men to work in the ghetto. It must not pull out of the ghetto, but must also recognize the need to educate the white persons, on whose 'new will' reform of society is dependent."

—"This 'white apostolate' will have an effect on the ghetto because, as the Kerner Commission noted, the involvement of white merchants and other segments of society in the ghetto is great."

—"All programs must be characterized by strong interreligious cooperation."

—"There is much that we do not know about ourselves and about the church's effect on society... and because of this the church will make mistakes and cause misunderstandings. We must therefore maintain a high degree of flexibility both in our actions and in our thinking, and yet must be firm in our resolve to act as Christians."

Action Plan

Popularity; A Thing

NEW YORK (NEA) — The wife being a casualty of the Tet offensive, we have learned not to mention President Johnson's name around the house. But according to a nationwide survey reported the other day, the President's popularity has jumped in the past several weeks from 38 per cent to 57 per cent.

Naturally, we found that news quite noteworthy. And so, forgetting our resolve to be silent on the subject, we noted Johnson's soaring popularity to the wife at dinner.

"Well," she said sweetly, "I'm not surprised in the least."

"You're not?" we inquired, incredulously.

"Not at all," the wife said. "In fact, I've decided to vote for him."

"Vote for him?" we echoed.

"For heaven's sake, what has changed your mind?"

"His irrevocable decision not to run again," she said.

"Then how can you vote for him?" we asked.

"How can I vote for anybody else," she snapped. "Do you realize what courage and sincerity it took for him to make that decision?"

"That may be true," we said a trifle too loudly. "But the decision is that he's not going to run again."

"Exactly," the wife said. "That's why he's so popular today. If he had decided to run, nobody would ever dream of voting for him."

It occurred to us dimly that where are they now.

The important question, it seems to us now, is where were they then?

And once you start asking that question, as we said, it is very hard to tell who is popular.

Where, for example, will Frank Sinatra have been when people ask about where is he now? Where is Doris Day now? Or the Beatles? Or Dean Martin? Where, for heaven's sake, is Jacqueline Kennedy now?

From what we can see, you do not have to be popular in order to get the banks and stock exchanges to close for your funeral, or have frightened politicians charter jet planes to attend, or have a national day of mourning set. We abandoned the entire topic and took another helping of anticid.

It is only honest to admit, however, that we cannot offer any better explanation of the workings of popularity—either for LBJ, or for anybody else. Not so long ago, it was generally believed that such people as Leo Durocher, Ernie Kovacs, and Kukla, Fran and Ollie were very popular. And if memory serves, we shared that opinion. In fact, we have often wondered from time to time where are they now?

Within the past several weeks, however, we have seen all of these figures in action again. And it has stopped us completely from wondering aside by presidential edict.

But whatever it takes to get that, we'll take it over popularity any day in the week.

Why didn't South use Blackwood on today's hand to check for aces? For the same reason that you never see the hero of a Western movie jump into his modern car and ride off into the sunset. Today's hand was played before Easley Blackwood had invented his convention.

Hands like this one made some quantitative method of asking for aces an essential of successful bidding.

This hand is not shown for that reason but because South had no trouble making his slam in spite of missing two aces.

East played his deuce of hearts and West studied what to lead at trick two. He shifted to a club, whereupon South proceeded to draw trumps and eventually discard his jack of diamonds on dummy's king of hearts.

We don't think much of West's club lead. South had jumped to the slam without any top spade honor but the ace. He had shown up with a heart loser. It would be most unlikely that he would bid a slam with a possible trump loser and without the ace of either unbid suit.

Today we would not find South in that slam contract, but, if he did get there, another modern invention called the suit preference signal would enable East to tell West what to lead.

East would play his queen of hearts on West's ace. West would see that East could not possibly want a heart continuation. Therefore, that high card, the queen of diamonds, would be calling for the lead of the higher off-suit. Diamonds are higher than clubs. West would lead a diamond.

A word of warning is necessary here. The suit preference signal is fine but don't carry it to absurd extremes. Most of the time, you play a high card to ask partner to continue his suit or a low card to ask him to shift to another one and that other one is not necessarily the lower of the suits you must choose between.

Ann Landers

Hubby Just Ducks All Unpleasantness

Dear Ann Landers: Last week I slipped in the shower and broke my shoulder. It was 10:00 p.m. and my husband, Roy, was playing poker at the Elks Club. When I telephoned him he said, "Gee, that's a shame. Take a taxi to the hospital. I am $60 ahead now and I'd better stay in the game and make the hospital bill." He suggested I call my mother if I wanted "company."

Last summer when my brother cut his hand on a beer bottle, Roy fainted. I had to bind up my brother's hand and drive him to the doctor's office. When our children came down with poison ivy (they weren't very sick but they looked a mess), Roy suddenly remembered a fishing date and left town. He didn't take me to the hospital when the children were born. With our first boy, he had what the doctor called sympathetic labor pains and was in worse shape than I was. When the second boy was born, he was out of town—60 miles away—with car trouble.

There must be a reason for this. What is it?—WIFE OF A LITTLE BOY

Dear Wife: Your answer appears in your signature. Roy is too immature to face unpleasantness or discomfort, so he takes a duck whenever he sees something coming. In addition to being immature, Roy is also inconsiderate, and that's a mighty unattractive combination. Lots of luck.

Dear Ann Landers: When people write and ask for advice you are supposed to help them, not insult them. Your answer to Upackrick, the secretary who didn't know what to do about her fresh boss with Roman hands, was no help. You said, "Kwickerkiddin." A 23-year-old girl knows how to put an eight-handed idiot in his place — if she really wants to, that is.

Did it ever occur to you that some girls have to work for a living? They can't take a chance on offending the boss and losing their job—and maybe getting blacklisted—if he is a louse.

Before you answered that letter you should have talked to some honest-to-goodness working girls.—ONE MYSELF

Dear One: I did talk to some honest-to-goodness secretaries. Mine.

The girls agreed unanimously that, almost without exception, the secretary who has trouble keeping her boss in line has asked for it. Also, no secretary gets pawed more than once unless she enjoys it. Another point brought out by my secretaries was that every city has a few executives who are part-time sex maniacs and no decent girl would work for them. Good jobs are easier to find these days than good secretaries.

Dear Ann Landers: I know you don't believe in Lonely Hearts Clubs and neither do I, but you could do a lot of good in this world, Ann, if you would match up some of the fine people who yearn for companionship.

You could insist that the applicants send references from a clergyman, a physician and a bank. You might even do personal interviewing in your home to make sure these people are respectable. You could match people of the same age group, religion, educational and financial backgrounds. Just think of lives you could change, please say yes, Ann. — THE SHY ONE

Dear Shy: I could change lives all right — especially MINE. All I need is a matchmaking operation, and in my own home yet.

Playing cupid can be dangerous. I want no part of it. Everybody should find his own mate. Then he can either thank himself or kick himself.

What is French kissing? Is it wrong? Who should set the necking limits—the boy or the girl? Can a shotgun wedding succeed? Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Teen-age Sex — Ten Ways To Cool It." Send 50c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Senate OKs Loan To Distressed Schools

LANSING (AP) — A bill to permit emergency state loans to financially distressed school districts passed the Senate Wednesday and was sent back to the House for concurrence in minor amendments.

The measure creates a $1.5 million pool from which districts in proven financial trouble could receive the emergency loans.

Provisions for repayment to the state are included in the bill, enabling it to continue as a revolving fund able to pay out more than the $1.5 million specified.

The fund idea originally was conceived to help out the Inkster School District, near Detroit.

"But Inkster is not the only one in trouble," commented Sen. Frank Beadle, R-St. Clair, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Guarantee Payment
"There also are others who need the money,"

Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit, said the loans will be, in effect, an advance on school aid payments.

"There are ironclad guarantees for repayment," he said.

The measure further calls for school districts receiving such loans to balance their budget or face reorganization by the State Board of Education.

The bill was approved by a 31-1 vote with only Sen. James Gray, D-Warren, opposed.

Control Instruction

The Senate also passed and sent to the governor for signing a measure permitting instruction on birth control in the state's public schools. This is a companion bill to a similar measure allowing general sex instruction previously approved by the Senate.

Local school districts are allowed discretion on approval of the sex education courses. The measure further provides that competent instructors must be provided.

Parents further can request that their children be excused from attending the classes.

The bill had the backing of the State Board of Education and its advisors in the Department of Public Instruction.

Fish Bills Pass

Three measures advocated by the State Conservation Department for tighter control over its program of rearing and planting game fish were approved and sent to the governor.

They would:

—Make it illegal for anglers to catch fish for the sole purpose of removing their eggs. This is aimed at fishermen who catch salmon and other game fish to use their eggs as bait.

—Set up controls over the bringing in of live eggs from other states. This is to prevent the introduction of any undesirable fish species.

—Allow the Conservation Department to make reciprocal agreements with other states on fishing regulations in the Great Lakes. This is primarily intended as a protection for the salmon and steelhead trout.

Special Offering At Adventist Church Saturday

Escanaba Seventh-day Adventists, Saturday will focus on the 7,000 Adventist young men serving in the United States Armed Forces around the world.

"We're proud of our young men," reports L. A. Pomeroy, pastor of the Escanaba Adventist Church. "Most register as conscientious objectors, but they aren't draft card burners or dodgers."

"Adventist young men respond to the draft and most become unarmed medics when they are inducted," says Pomeroy. "In this way they can serve their country without taking life."

Right now about 550 Adventists are serving in Vietnam, where at least 35 have been killed in action.

Pomeroy says his church will take a special offering Saturday, to supply Adventists in the armed forces with appropriate Christian literature and help the church to keep in touch with its boys overseas. The nationwide goal is $100,000, which will support the program for the next two years.

The denomination has 12 military chaplains and nine civilian chaplains to counsel servicemen, says Pomeroy. The church also sponsors pre-induction training camps in military and paramedical procedures, to prepare its young men for military service. One such camp is at Grand Ledge, 10 miles west of Lansing.

Bridge League To Meet May 22

Apportionment Panel Selects Neiman Chairman

Arthur A. Neiman, chairman of the County Republican committee, Wednesday was elected chairman of the County Apportionment Commission as the five-member group organized to begin study of reapportionment of the County Board of Supervisors.

Neiman is the lone Republican member of the commission. Others, all Democrats, are County Clerk William E. Butler, Prosecuting Attorney Nicholas P. Chapekis, Treasurer Anne S. Villeneuve and George St. Louis, chairman of the county Democratic Committee.

Reapportionment of Boards of Supervisors has been ordered by the courts under the "one man, one vote" principal. A Michigan law provides that Delta County's board shall be elected from not less than five or more than 15 equal-population districts.

Currently, the Board of Supervisors has 27 members, nine from Escanaba, four from Gladstone and one from each of the county's 14 townships.

Butler said today that each member of the commission will prepare a plan for consideration at the next meeting of the Commission at 4 p.m. Thursday, May 16.

He said he does not anticipate any major difficulty in coming up with a workable plan for the county. Various size boards were discussed Wednesday, but no specific recommendations were made.

As of yet there has been no ruling from the Michigan Supreme Court as to whether or not reapportionment of county boards must be completed in time for election in November.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions is June 18 at 4 p.m.

Crew Escapes In Lake Blast

The fishing vessel "Rex" owned by Roger Tallman of Munising was damaged in Lake Michigan by an explosion at about 6:30 a. m. today.

The boat was operating out of Naubinway and was about 15 minutes out of the port on Lake Michigan when the blast occurred. An oil burner was thought to have been the cause.

Tallman and his son, Kirk, and Pat Casey of Fairport composed the crew and they hung onto buoys after leaving the burning craft until rescued by another fishing craft.

Roger Tallman was treated at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital in Manistique for burns on the hands suffered in the mishap. The others were not injured.

The boat was one of six commercial fishing vessels fishing whitefish under state permits in those waters.

Ray Sullivan, Former Resident Dies In Florida

Ray Sullivan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan, pioneer residents of Escanaba, died recently in St. Petersburg, Fla.

He graduated from high school in Escanaba and also attended Michigan Technological University at Houghton. He was employed by the Eagle Pencil Co. of New York until his retirement.

He is survived by three sons, Edward of Plainfield, N. J., John of Chatham, N. J., and Byrne of Scituate, Mass.; two sisters, Miss Ella Sullivan and Mrs. Howard (Marge) Van Lear of Minneapolis, Minn. Funeral services were held in New York.

Three Injured In City Mishaps

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in two traffic accidents investigated by Escanaba police Wednesday.

Officers said cars driven by Roslyn A. Viau, 19, of 1901 9th Ave., N., and Michael W. Ettenhofer, 50, of 1118 10th Ave., S., collided about 5 p.m. at the intersection of 9th Ave., S., and S. 12th St.

Sister Rose Catherine, a passenger in the Viau car, was treated for injuries at St. Francis Hospital and released. Ettenhofer also suffered minor injuries, police reported.

Ettenhofer was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way. Police also ticketed Bernard S. Nicewander, 43, of 1530 Sheridan Rd., for improper lane usage after his car struck a parked car on Sheridan Rd. The parked car was owned by Charles D. Beauchamp, 907 Main St., Wells.

Nicewander suffered minor injuries in the accident, officers said.

Student Poll

HOUGHTON — Richard M. Nixon was the favorite among Michigan Tech students who voted in Choice '68, but Senator Eugene McCarthy ran a close second. Nixon pulled 596 votes, 84 more than McCarthy. Sen. ## One-Man, One-Vote Says Court: County Election Reform Ordered LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that counties must be reapportioned to allow election of supervisors on a one-man, one-vote basis. The ruling struck down a section of the Michigan Constitution.

The tribunal did not indicate whether redistricting must take place this year, saying the question of a timetable is "left open to future action and determination."

Acting a month after the U.S. Supreme Court extended the equal-population principle to local governments, the state court reversed a decision it made two years ago.

Six members of the eight-man court upheld a 1966 state law which requires county reapportionment, but did not involve itself with the difficulties which might arise as counties hasten to redraw their districts in time for the Aug. 6 primary.

May Extend Filing

State Rep. J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, said meanwhile he would introduce a bill extending from June 18 to July 1 the deadline for filing as a candidate for supervisor, giving counties that much longer to redistrict themselves.

Some counties have already drawn up redistricting plans under the 1966 act, which the Michigan high court struck down in April 1967. Others had apportionment schemes in progress and some have done nothing.

Strikes Township Rule

The U.S. decision, the state court said, strikes down a section of the Michigan Constitution which gives each organized township in a county, regardless of population, one representative on the county's board of supervisors.

It carefully pointed out that it was not ruling on the application or interpretation of the law, nor "the continuity of existing county governments and tenure of presently elected supervisors."

The State Court of Appeals, inferior in jurisdiction to the Supreme Court, ruled last month that the state constitutional provision was invalid and that the 1966 act should be upheld.

Kelly Dissents

Wednesday's Supreme Court majority included Chief Justice John Dehmers and Justices Eugene Black, Thomas M. Kavanagh, Theodore Souris, Michael O'Hara and Paul Adams.

Justice Harry F. Kelly, in a separate, one-sentence opinion, said he did not believe the federal decision required the state court to reverse its previous ruling.

Justice Thomas Brennan criticized the majority for acting "hastily" and "without benefit of briefs or arguments." He added: "no statute, much less constitutional provision, ought to be presumed unconstitutional."

He said the one-township, one supervisor provision in the state constitution would meet the federal one-man, one-vote standard if the Legislature directed counties to redraw township boundaries to create townships or equal size.

Lake States' Wood Gets Attention Of Industry

By JEAN WORTH

"We feel very optimistic about what can happen in forest industry in the Northern Great Lakes States," says George S. James of Milwaukee, regional forester in the 20-state 9th Region of the U.S. Forest Service.

In Escanaba for a conference with Alfred Troutt, supervisor of the Hiawatha National Forest, one of the 15 federal forests in the 9th Region, James said: "We know that a lot of people and enterprises are looking to Northern Michigan and this part of the United States because of the raw materials here."

"The South has been very cheap (on wood costs) but that is tending to flatten off, so the future expansion in wood industries must occur where there is opportunity to grow. The South has reached a balance point between the capacity of its forests to grow wood and its mills' capacity to convert it into commercial products."

Where The Wood Is

"New enterprises will have to go where there are sources of wood supply."

James said that this results in a natural interest of large wood-using industries in the Northern Great Lakes States at this time, since the great growth of wood industry in the South has now caught up with its potential for wood supply.

The Lake States have had no comparable growth of wood-using industries, but the signs of the quickening pace of development here are increasingly evident. Most spectacular development has been Mead Corp.'s huge development of its interests, both in forest lands and in plant expansion, with a first phase program of construction to cost $56 million now underway at its Escanaba Paper Co. mill.

Interest In Area

The purchase of Cliffs-Dow's charcoal and wood chemicals plant at Marquette by Georgia-Pacific and Bruce Corp. is another move of big industry in the Upper Peninsula and word is awaited on the further intentions of Oxford Paper Co. to build a $100 million pulp and paper mill near Munising.

The company announced tentative plans for the facility and then was acquired by Ethyl Corp., and there has been no further confirmation of planning for the new mill.

Most recent announcement was that of Copper Range Co. that it would build a $2 million sawmill and dimension wood complex in the Copper Country to mill wood from its forest lands.

"The mill companies are looking for voids," said James, "looking for areas where the available wood manufacturing capacity does not use up the resource. The Upper Peninsula is one of these and it is being watched. Segments of the industry want to establish themselves for future wood supply and they are going to make a move soon."

Sale Is Clue

"Our June 12 Borealis sale of timber on the Hiawatha Forest may indicate whether Oxford intends to go ahead with its Munising mill plans at this time, or it may not."

Oxford was one of the large mill companies which evidenced interest in the sale, by which the Forest Service proposes to make available to wood using industry 500,000 cords of pulpwood in the eastern Upper Peninsula in a 15-year cutting period.

This type of long-term, large-volume commitment on wood supply has been sought by industry as a stabilizing influence in planning manufacture and both the federal and state governments are cooperating in their forest management programs. This Borealis sale would offer wood which is in addition to the forest's present production, so that it would not jeopardize the supply of industries already depending upon the Hiawatha Forest for their pulpwood.

Aid To Industry

A mill site has been made available by the Forest Service to Oxford and wood is available. Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. was active in the Oxford project, offering to make its pulpwood available. It is a large owner of U.P. forest lands and has a sawmill complex at Forrest Center near Munising.

James indicated that nearly a like amount of surplus or allowable cut wood would still be available in the Hiawatha Forest even after the Borealis sale. In the Sault Ste. Marie Ranger District of the Forest

No Bonus Battle This Year Over UCLA Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — There will be no bonus war over the three UCLA seniors drafted by the pro basketball leagues this year, but that certainly won't be the situation with at least one UCLA player next year.

Warren, drafted by Los Angeles of the American Basketball Association Sunday, was bypassed in the National Basketball Association draft Wednesday.

Lynn and Lacey, on the other hand, were ignored by the ABA.

"Catfish" Pitches Ninth Perfect Game In Modern Baseball History

By The Associated Press

It has been an adventuresome 22 years for Jim "Catfish" Hunter of the Oakland A's, who pitched his way out of Hartford, N.C., and into the record book with the ninth perfect game in modern baseball history Wednesday night.

Hunter drove in three runs with a pair of singles and mowed down 27 straight Minnesota hitters for the second no-hitter of the young baseball season, beating the Twins 4-0.

It was the first regular season perfect game in 46 years in the American League and it's a cinch it was the first masterpiece hurled by a pitcher with only nine toes.

Hunter, who pocketed $75,000 of Charlie Finley bonus money in 1964, lost the big toe on his right foot in a hunting accident in November, 1963. Shortly after signing with the A's, who still were in Kansas City then, Hunter was hospitalized to have shotgun pellets removed from his foot.

The operation slowed his progress and at one point the A's considered dropping the young right-hander but the big bonus investment convinced them to stick with him and he came through handsomely.

Wednesday's masterpiece against the Twins might have shaken most young pitchers. But not Catfish. He'd been this route before.

In 1963, Hunter threw another perfect game for Perquimans County High School back in Hertford, N.C. Wednesday's gem came in the Oakland Coliseum, 2,580 miles from Perquimans County. It's understandable why Catfish had to spell the name of the school five times to newsmen. After all, they must have been nervous. Few had seen any perfect games before.

In other American League games Wednesday, Detroit dropped Baltimore 3-1, Boston took Washington 3-1, California nipped Chicago 3-2 and New York edged Cleveland 2-1.

Bengals Close Gap On League Leaders

BALTIMORE (AP) — Outfielder Jim Northrup, playing his best game of the season, slammed a first inning homer and turned in a game-saving catch to preserve Earl Wilson's third victory as the Detroit Tigers moved to within a half game of Baltimore with a 3-1 victory over the Orioles Wednesday night.

Wilson loaded the bases with two out in the Baltimore eighth when Brooks Robinson lashed a

Wilson was coasting along on a five hitter until the ninth when Boog Powell and Dave Johnson led off with singles.

Manager Mayo Smith brought in rookie Jon Warden from the bullpen and he retired the side to wrap up the victory, Detroit's second in three games with the Orioles. The Tigers snapped Baltimore's eight-game winning streak Tuesday.

Normally sure-handed Don Wert booted Andy Etchebarren's grounder with two out, ruining the shutout. It was Wert's second error of the game.

Northrup hammered his fifth homer of the season off loser Dave McNally in the first inning. A single by Willie Horton, Wert's double and a sacrifice fly by Dick Tracewski added a run in the second and Al Kaline's double and Horton's single in the sixth provided the final Detroit run.

Smith, trying to get some punch into the Detroit lineup, benched second baseman Dick McAuliffe, putting Tracewski at second and Ray Oyler at short. Neither player got a hit but McAuliffe belted a single in the ninth as a pinch hitter.

The Tigers were off today. They resume action in Washington Friday with Denny McLain going to the mound.

Hunter Jubilant After No-Hitter

OAKLAND (AP) — "At $5,000 a shot I'll take all the no-hitters I can get," said a jubilant Jim "Catfish" Hunter Wednesday night.

He had just fired a third strike past Minnesota Twins pinch hitter Rich Reese on a 3-2 count—after Reese had fouled off five pitches—and recorded the first regular season perfect game pitched in the American League in 46 years.

"I just wanted to throw strikes with my fast balls," said the 22-year-old Hertford, N.C., native.

"It was my second perfect game," said Hunter. "I threw one back in 1963 for Perquimans County High School. I don't remember whether it was seven or nine innings."

Then the 6-foot, 192-pound right-hander patiently spelled the high school's name five times for sports writers.

"Mr. Finley (owner Charles Finley) called me and said, 'You just cost me $5,000,' related the Catfish. "I asked him who won it and he told me, 'You did. I'm giving you a bonus.'"

Hunter had three hits in four trips to the plate in the 4-0 victory. He singled in two of the A's three runs in the ninth.

"Sure, I was thinking about the no-hitter a little when I hit. But I wanted to get some runs," he said.

It was the second no-hitter for plate umpire Jerry Neudecker. Last year he worked Joel Horlen's no-hitter for Chicago against Detroit.

"I wasn't excited," said Neudecker. "I have a job to do and I have to bear down just as much as the pitcher."

Golfing Great Dies Tuesday

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Craig Wood, one of the golfing greats of the 1930s and winner of the U.S. Open and Masters in 1941, is dead at 67. He was elected to the PGA Golf Hall of Fame in 1956.

Wood's body was found in his Palm Beach hotel room Wednesday. Police said he apparently had died Tuesday of natural causes.

During his heyday, Wood was known as the "Bridemaids." Until his sweep of the U.S. Open and Masters in 1941, he had been runner-up in the Open, Masters, PGA and British Open.

In 1935, the winner's check in the Masters had been made out in his name. He was accepting congratulations in the clubhouse at Augusta when Gene Sarazen made his phenomenal double eagle to tie for the lead. Sarazen then beat Wood in a playoff.

Official Claims Dominance Over

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A veteran PGA official predicted today as the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament got under way that Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus will no longer be able to dominate the play for pay ranks.

"No, not because they're off their game," quickly added Bob Gorham, the PGA's field secretary. "It's because there are so many good players coming on the tour these days. It is just that the competition is getting better and better, stiffer and stiffer and no one man can really dominate the game."

He points to this year's money list, in which eight of the top 60 have been on the tour less than two years, plus the field of the GNOO.

Fifteen pros survived the PGA's Approved Tournament Player School at Palm Beach Garden, Fla., earlier this month, earning the right to join the lucrative tour.

Seven of them tried to qualify here, the first tournament in which they could compete. Four made it — Bob Dickson, whose amateur record includes victories in the British and U.S. Amateur championships; Japan's Hideyo Sugimoto; Joe Porter, and Larry Hinson.

Also in the field is Wayne Volmer, who flunked the ATP 144-hole tournament in Florida. He could play here under a PGA rule that a pro without an ATP card can attempt to qualify for three events annually. If he is lucky enough to win, he is automatically permitted to play the tour.

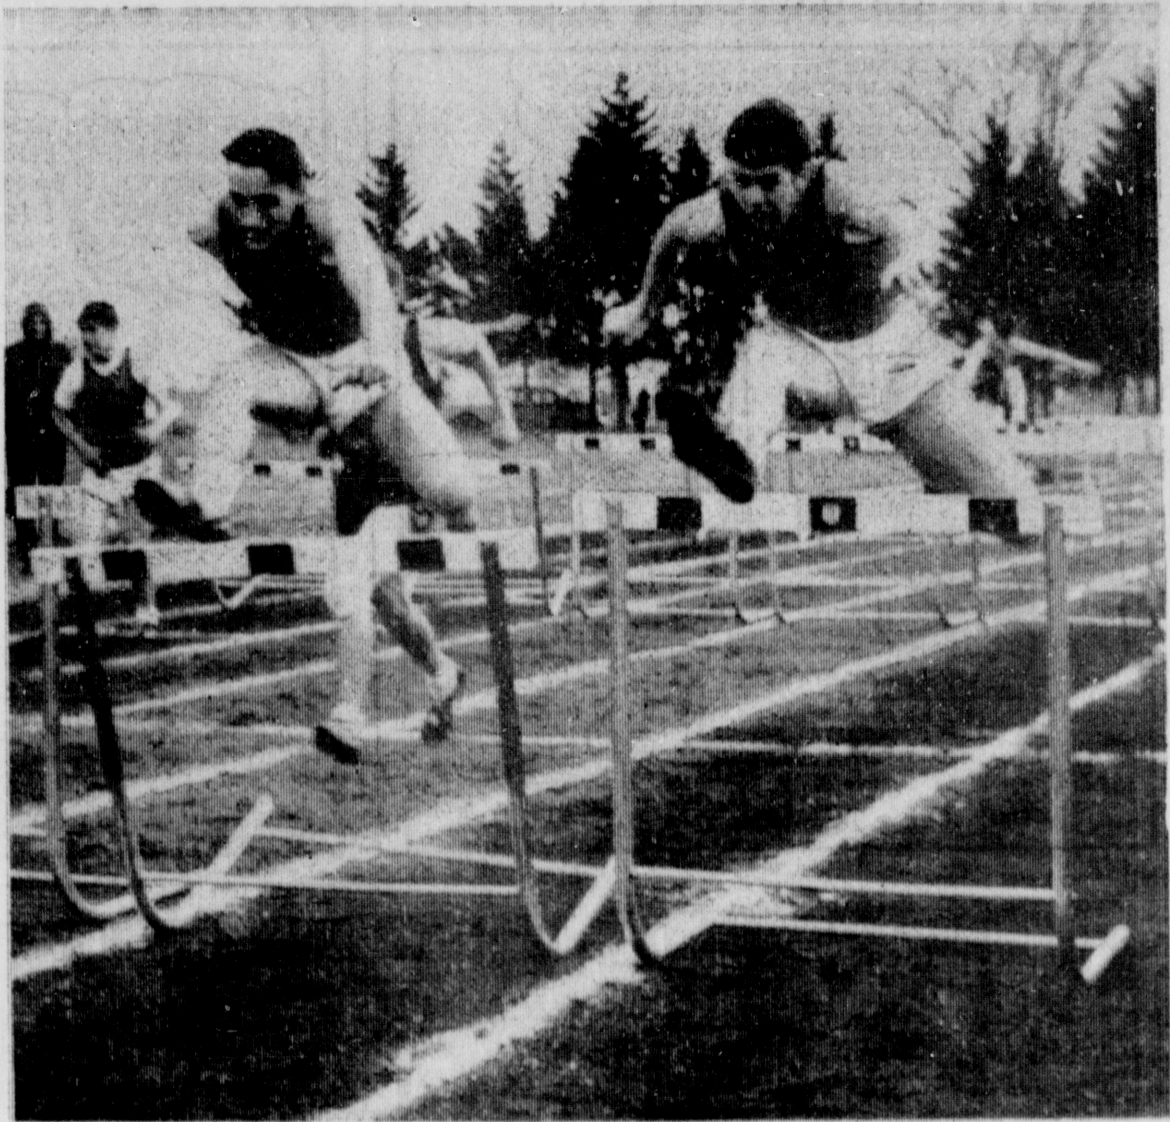

However, the galleries will be following such players as Nicklaus, Tom Weiskopf, who is this year's top money winner, Julius Boros, Gary Player, Frank Beard, Billy Casper, Gardner Dickinson, defending champion George Knudson and Doug Sanders.

Dickson, Porter, Hinson and Sugimoto, with either extremely early or extremely late starting times, will be struggling to survive the cut at the 36th hole. Success means they get an automatic exemption for the next tournament on the $5.25 million tour this year.

Palmer bypassed the GNOO this year and so did Masters champion Bob Goalby.

Lewis Avenges Earlier Defeat

Eskymo Trackmen Gather Top Honors In Triangular Meet

Escanaba Eskymo trackmen captured nine first place finishes enroute to a victory over Iron Mountain and Holy Name in a triangular track meet held yesterday afternoon at the Escanaba Athletic Field.

The Eskymos finished the afternoon with 81½ points to top second place Iron Mountain with 47. Holy Name wound up with 19 points.

John Vardigan continued his dominance in the pole vault as he won the event at 10 feet 6 inches. An exceedingly high wind and rain made it impossible to keep the cross bar on the pole vault standards, so Vardigan did not try for a greater height.

Allen Berg and Tom Anzalone were the meet's only double winners. Berg took firsts in long jump and the 120-yard high hurdles. Anzalone was victorious in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. In addition to his double victory, Berg also captured seconds in the high jump and 180-yard low hurdles.

Also getting victories for the Eskymos were Steve Miketina, high jump; Steve Jurmu, two-mile run and Tom Boyle in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Pat Verhamme of Holy Name gave the Crusaders their highest finish with a second place in the 120-yard high hurdles. Verhamme also finished third in the high jump.

State Players Draft Choices

NEW YORK (AP) — Four players with Michigan backgrounds were among those chosen in the annual National Basketball Association draft Wednesday.

The Detroit Pistons selected Manny Leaks of Niagara in the second round to go with first round choice Otto Moore of Pan American, selected earlier in the year and already signed to a contract.

One of the top choices was John Trapp, a 6-foot-7 forward from Nevada Southern, who played his high school basketball at Highland Park High School in the Detroit suburb of Highland Park.

Trapp was the No. 2 pick of the San Diego Rockets, a second year team which dropped 32 of its last 33 games last year.

Another high pick was Sam Williams of Iowa, selected in the third round by Milwaukee. Williams played high school ball at Detroit Eastern High.

The Los Angeles Lakers selected Dennis Hicks of Hillsdale in the sixth round and Reggie Lacey of Western Michigan in the 11th round.

Other Pistons' selections, in the order chosen: Don Doe, St. Mary's of Kansas; Rich Nieman, St. Louis University; Carl Fuller, Bethune-Cookman; Wally Anderson, Creighton; Larry Newbold, Long Island U.; Harry Laurie, St. Peter's of New Jersey; Vaughn Harper, Syracuse and Tom Baack, Nebraska.

Schedule Set In Slow-Pitch

The Escanaba Slow-Pitch Softball Association decided to begin play on Monday, May 20, at a meeting held at Lark's Bar Wednesday evening. A starting schedule will be announced prior to opening day.

Teams represented at the meeting were Lark's, AMVETS, River Post, Metropolitan Hotel, Meier's Signs and Lombardi's Bar. There is a possibility of one or two teams joining the league.

The association tentatively approved George Petaja and Odo Provo as umpires for the season.

Any team wishing to join the league is reminded that they may have only three players under 30 years of age, but at least 25 years old. Existing teams may use three players under 30 years old provided they played on the team the previous year. Such players must be at least 26 years old.

Paul Vardigan, representing the City Recreation Board, stated that both the Dock Diamond and the High School Diamond would be ready by opening day. Teams are reminded to have their entry fee in prior to June 15. Each team must purchase and supply the league with three new balls.

Pirates Defeat Braves In 14-Inning Decision

By The Associated Press

Luman Harris watched four right arms overpower the Atlanta Braves... and couldn't believe his eyes.

"Everybody looks like Lefty Grove against us," the Braves' skipper said Wednesday night after his club dropped a 4-3, 14-inning decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates. "We get three runs in the first inning and I don't see us get anybody else on base for the next three hours."

Right-handers Steve Blass, Dave Wickersham, Ron Kline and Elroy Face threw blanks at Atlanta after the Braves pushed over three unearned first inning runs. Roberto Clemente's sacrifice fly in the 14th finally won it for the Pirates, who have played six one-run ball games in their last seven starts.

Elsewhere, San Francisco trimmed Houston 3-1. St. Louis topped the New York Mets 2-0, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 6-2 and the Chicago Cubs edged Los Angeles 7-6.

Pinch hitter Gary Kolb opened the Pirates' 14th by drawing a walk from Atlanta reliever Cecil Upshaw. Maury Wills forced Kolb, Matty Alou beat out an infield hit and the pair pulled off a double steal before Wills scored the tie-breaking run on Clemente's fly to right.

The Pirates had tied it with two runs in the eighth, capitalizing on two wild pitches by Atlanta starter Phil Niekro and a throwing error by catcher Marty Martinez.

Kline limited the Braves to one hit from the ninth through the 13th and earned the victory, with Face pitching the final inning. Blass allowed three hits before going out for a pinch hitter in the sixth and Wickersham followed up with two scoreless innings.

Financing Troublous But . . .

Utility Reports Gain In Income

Over 90 per cent of the 1,245 stockholder owners of the Edison Electric Co. were present at the electric utility's 76th annual meeting held in Sault Ste. Marie May 7 and heard Harold O. Polian, chairman of the board of directors, report that gross revenues for 1967 were $4,783,321, an increase of 4.7 per cent over 1966.

While this increase in gross revenues was somewhat below the national average, Polian stated that this was primarily attributed to the fact that there has been no major industrial expansion in the Eastern Upper Peninsula for the past several years. "Industrial expansion for our area is not only desirable," continued Polian, "but necessary for the economic well-being of our entire area."

The chairman pointed out that Edison Sault Electric Co., on its own initiative and in co-operation with other utilities and organizations, was focusing its attention and placing added emphasis on the problem of locating industry in the electric power company service area.

The company had reduced rates in 1966 and 1967.

President Richard Y. Burnett reviewed the annual report for the year 1967 and Robert C. Kline, Jr., vice chairman of the board, pointed out that management of the company view 1968 with restrained confidence and with cautious and reserved apprehension. This attitude is reflected by all utility management, Kline stated, and is dictated by factors over which management has little or no control.

The company pays out nearly 25 per cent of its revenue in taxes of all kinds and taxes continue to increase by the pressure of more services demanded upon all segments of government. Kline said the electric utility has to invest approximately $4 in gross plant to produce $1 in revenue and this heavy burden of investment is complicated by interest rates at the highest level in 100 years. The electric company paid a rate of 4 1/4 per cent in 1964 on a borrowing of $2,000,000 and during March of 1968 an interest rate of 7 per cent was charged on a similar type of borrowing for $1,250,000.

"We cannot foresee any immediate relief in the near future," Kline said, "because of the continued high demand for capital funds. In addition to the problem of the dollar crisis, the continued high demand for capital funds. In addition to the problem of the dollar crisis, the continual spiraling of material and labor costs, general economic conditions make the future difficult to define."

Kline said, "The future presents a challenge to management to continue to furnish the high level of service and maintain the present low rates for electric service."

Stockholders returned to the board of directors the five incumbents, Harold O. Polian, Robert C. Kline, Jr., Walter A. Youngstrom, Richard Y. Burnett and J. Charles Deuser.

Support Given Death Penalty For Riot Sniper

LANSING (AP) — Rep. Anthony Licata, R-Detroit, said Wednesday a poll in his west side district showed overwhelming support of the death penalty for convicted riot snipers.

Licata said 1,626 respondents supported the idea, while 418 opposed and 189 expressed no opinion. The Michigan Constitution forbids capital punishment.

He said he received 2,300 return questionnaires, about 30 per cent of the number he mailed.

Respondents voted 2,097 to 68 for more policemen in Detroit, but 372 to 1,688 against a proposed increase in the one per cent city income tax.

They strongly endorsed mandatory minimum penalties for felonies, a state stop-and-frisk law, and publication of the names of juveniles accused of felonies. They voted 678 to 1,447 against state aid to private and parochial schools.

Approval For Conduct Of War Shows Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — A survey conducted by Rep. Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., in his southwest Lower Michigan 4th District showed 60 per cent of those replying were not in favor of President Johnson's conduct of the Vietnam war.

Approval of the President's war conduct came from 22 per cent, up from the four per cent response from a similar question last year.

In making the results of the survey public, Hutchinson said 10,000 families took part in the survey in his seven-county district including Allegan, Berrien, Branch, Cass, Hillsdale, St. Joseph and Van Buren counties.

Hutchinson said nearly all who responded did so after Johnson's March 31 announcement of limited bombing against North Vietnam and his decision against running for another term.

Crucible Steel Sians Contract

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Crucible Steel Corp., announced that it has headed off the possibility of being involved in a national steel strike this summer by signing a separate contract with the United Steelworkers Union.

Crucible President John C. Lobb, who has been an industry maverick ever since taking over the 15th-ranked specialty producer last year, said the agreement was cheaper than any strike.

Lobb said the agreement gives the firm's workers an immediate 10-cent hourly raise, with five more cents in August until a national contract is reached. He said the union has agreed not to strike.

State Income Tax In '68 Tops $100 Million

PI STATE INCOME

LANSING (AP) — The state collected more than $100.2 million in individual income taxes during the first three months of the year, State Revenue Commissioner Clarence Lock reports.

This amount, less one-quarter of the estimated cost of property tax, municipal income tax and renter credit authorized in the Income Tax Act, is being certified for computation of the sum to be shared with local units of government.

The estimated one-quarter of these credits is $30.5 million. This leaves $69.7 million, against which the 17 per cent to be returned to the local units of government is applied.

The statute provides that 17 per cent of the net collections after deductions of credits is to be sent to the 83 county treasurers on a per capita basis.

The county treasurer retains one-half for the county's general fund. The remaining one-half is distributed to cities, townships and villages within the county, also on a per capita basis.

The legislative theory in adopting this method of sharing the income tax collections was that it would help hold down local property taxes.

As an example of the amount to be expected, Lock estimated Ingham County would receive about $320,000 from the first quarterly distribution. One-half will go to the county and one-half to the cities, townships and villages. Lansing will receive $87,000 for the quarter and more than $350,000 for the full year, Lock said.

An easy way for the cities, townships and villages to figure how much money they will receive for the first quarter, Lock said, is to estimate that it will be 75 cents for each person counted during the 1960 federal census.

Plumbers To Vote On New Contract

CADILLAC (AP) — A ratification vote on a new contract with the Associated General Contractors is scheduled Saturday for members of Local 639 of United Association of Plumbers and Fitters, which covers eight counties in northern Lower Michigan.

Terms of the new pact were not announced. Under the old contract, plumbers earned $4.95 an hour in wage and fringe benefits.

The district covers Wexford, Benzie, Kalkaska, Antrim, Grand Traverse, Leelanau, Emmet and Charlevoix counties.

Members of the Northwinds Council of the carpenter's union remain on strike.

Jack Pine Fire Near Roscommon Out Of Control

ROSCOMMON (AP) — Conservation Department fire-fighting crews in northern Lower Michigan continued to fight one forest fire early this morning after another fire had been brought under control.

The out-of-control fire was burning through jack pine woods about 15 miles north of the town of Roscommon. Fire fighters said the blaze was burning away from the town and no building appeared to be in danger. It was not immediately known how much woodland had been destroyed in the fire.

High winds were reportedly fanning the fire.

The second fire was contained after about 1,000 acres had been burned in southeast Kalkaska County. Officials declared the fire under control at 10 p.m., although they said they expected it to burn through the night.

At one time, the fire threatened an oil field, conservation officials said, but the fire was controlled. No buildings were damaged.

Both blazes were fought by personnel from the Michigan and U.S. Forest Services and civilian volunteers, using tractors, plows, trucks and pumps.

The Michigan Conservation Department's "water bomber," a light plane which scoops up 125 gallons of water from lakes and dumps it on the blaze, was also used.

Natural Landmark

WASHINGTON (AP)—Grand Mere Lakes in Berrien County have been recommended for inclusion in the national registry of natural landmarks.

Under the program, the area would be registered as a national landmark by the Department of the Interior but ownership of the land would not change.

Grand Mere Lakes contains lakes and bogs formed during the evolution of Lake Michigan.
